THE STORY

I am green!

I'm one of the range of Naturalight™ lamps, and we've all been designed to do our bit to protect the planet. Take our energy-saving tubes for example. They provide loads of light, but use 80% less power - saving you money!

We also incorporate natural materials wherever possible, and we're made to the strictest environment-friendly production standards. That's why we can display the ROHS logo on our boxes.

And that's not all. All our packaging is now completely, 100% lovely cardboard – so you can do your bit too, and recycle it.
