
Gerlan® Hand Cream

Consists of a special combination of ingredients including aloe vera, jojoba oil, tapioca starch, and urea for intensive care and protection of overstrained hands. It is moisturizing cream that is quickly absorbed and non-sticky. It is particularly good for hands that come into frequent contact with water and cleaning materials. It is also good for hands that are continually covered with protective gloves. It contains antimicrobial substances that protect the skin from infections. Anti-inflammatory bisabolol and panthenol help promote healing and provide extra protection.
