thermabliss® Self-Heating & Self-Cooling Massage Stones (or Shells)

Treatment Description: 60 or 90 Minutes

EXPANDED DESCRIPTION: thermabliss® Stone (or Shell) Massage enables maximum therapeutic benefits using sustainable natural mineral energy activated by water with continuous head for increased touch time, heat and cold therapy with induced blood flow for soreness relief, and deep muscle relaxation. Each hand-crafted, non-porous thermabliss stone is sanitized and disinfected for your safety and has multiple built-in massage features, empowering your therapist to address your needs with the ideal amount of heat and pressure. The abundant self-heating mineral technology (i.e., food-grade magnesium, iron, and salt) is activated by water to deliver thermal wellness with an innovative and sustainable technology that eliminates appliances and cables. Indulge your mind, body and spirit as you enjoy the relaxing thermal wellness benefits only thermabliss can provide.

EDITED DESCRIPTION 1: Treat your mind, body, and spirit to our self-heating thermabliss® stone massage, which melts tension and stress away. You will experience the flow of thermal wellness through the stones as your therapist induces deep relaxation along with the benefits of your selected aromatherapy scents.

EDITED DESCRIPTION 2: Your massage therapist will incorporate hand crafted, non-porous self-heating thermabliss® stones into your session. Unique, built-in massage features radiate continuous warmth that enables your therapist to relax tight, sore muscles right where you need it most.
